By using or continuing to use our services, you agree to our collection, use, storage, and sharing of your information in accordance with this Privacy Policy. We value your privacy. When you use our services, we may collect or use your relevant information. We hope to explain through this Privacy Policy how we collect, use, store, and share this information, and how you can access, update, control, and protect it.

This Privacy Policy is closely related to the services you use, so please read it carefully. Follow the guidance of this Privacy Policy to make the choices you consider appropriate. If you have any questions about this Privacy Policy or related matters, please contact us at <https://NetDrive.top>.

Information We May Collect

When we provide services, we may collect, store, or use the following information about you. If you do not provide relevant information, you may not be able to register as our user or enjoy some of the services we provide, or achieve the intended effects of related services.

Information You Provide

Personal information you provide to us when you register or use our services, such as phone number, email address, or bank card number;

Information you share with others through our services, as well as information you store when using our services.

Information Shared by Others About You

Information about you provided by others when using our services.

Information We Obtain About You

When you use our services, we may collect the following information:

Log Information: Technical information automatically collected by the system through Cookies, Web beacons, or other means when you use our services, including:

Device or software information, such as the configuration information provided by your mobile device, web browser, or other programs used to access our services, your IP address, and the version and device identifier of your mobile device;

Information you search or browse when using our services, such as the web search terms you use, the URL of social media pages you visit, and other information and content details you browse or request when using our services;

Information about the mobile applications (Apps) and other software you have used, and the information about the usage of such mobile applications and software;

Information about your communications through our services, such as the account numbers you communicate with, as well as the communication time, data, and duration;

Information contained in the content you share through our services (metadata), such as the date, time, or location of shared photos or videos taken or uploaded.

Location Information: Information about your location collected when you enable device location functions and use our location-based services, including:

Geolocation information collected through GPS or Wi-Fi when you use our services with a location-enabled mobile device;

Real-time information about your location provided by you or other users, such as your region information contained in the account information you provide, shared information showing your current or past location uploaded by you or others, and geotagging information contained in photos shared by you or others;

You can stop the collection of your geolocation information by turning off the location function.

Software List Information: Information collected when you use our software-related functions, mainly used to avoid downloading duplicates when restoring previously backed-up software.

MAC Address: Information about the MAC address collected from your device when using our products, mainly used for locating abnormal network requests and ensuring network service stability and security.

How We May Use Information

We may use the collected information for the following purposes:

Provide you with our services;

For identity verification, customer service, security prevention, fraud detection, archiving, and backup purposes when we provide services, to ensure the security of the products and services we provide to you;

Help us design new services and improve our existing services;

Evaluate and improve the effectiveness of our service advertisements and other promotional activities;

Software certification or management software upgrades;

Allow you to participate in surveys about our products and services.

How We Share Information

Unless with your consent, we and our affiliated companies will not share your personal information with any third party, except in the following cases:

We and our affiliated companies may share your personal information with our affiliated companies, partners, and third-party service providers, contractors, and agents (e.g., communications service providers who send emails or push notifications on our behalf, map service providers who provide location data for us) for the following purposes:

Provide you with our services;

Fulfill the purposes described in the "How We May Use Information" section;

Perform our obligations and exercise our rights in this Privacy Policy;

Understand, maintain, and improve our services.

If we or our affiliated companies share your personal information with any of the aforementioned third parties, we will strive to ensure that these third parties comply with this Privacy Policy and other appropriate confidentiality and security measures we require them to follow when using your personal information.

As our business continues to grow, we and our affiliated companies may undergo mergers, acquisitions, asset transfers, or similar transactions, and your personal information may be transferred as part of such transactions.

We or our affiliated companies may also retain, save, or disclose your personal information for the following needs:

Comply with applicable laws and regulations;

Comply with court orders or other legal processes;

Comply with requests from relevant government agencies;

For purposes reasonably necessary to comply with applicable laws and regulations, protect the public interest, or protect the personal and property safety or legal rights of our customers, us, or our group companies, other users, or employees.

Information Security

We retain your personal information only for the period necessary for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy and within the time limit required by laws and regulations. We use various security technologies and procedures to prevent information loss, improper use, unauthorized access, or disclosure. For example, in some services, we will use encryption technology (e.g., SSL) to protect the personal information you provide. However, please understand that due to technical limitations and various possible malicious means, even if we do our best to strengthen security measures, it is not always possible to guarantee 100% information security. You need to understand that the systems and communication networks you use to access our services may have issues due to factors beyond our control.

Information You Share

Many of our services allow you to publicly share your information not only with your social network but also with all users using the service, such as the information you upload or publish using our services (including your publicly disclosed personal information, your created lists), responses to information uploaded or published by others, and location data and log information related to such information. Other users using our services may also share information about you (including location data and log information). Especially, our social media services are designed to enable you to share information with users around the world. You can share information widely and in real-time. As long as you do not delete shared information, the relevant information will remain in the public domain; even if you delete shared information, the relevant information may still be independently cached, copied, or stored by other users or non-affiliated third parties not under our control, or stored by other users or third parties in the public domain. Therefore, please consider carefully the content you upload, publish, and communicate through our services. In some cases, you can control the range of users who have access to the information you share through privacy settings in certain services. If you want to delete your relevant information from our services, please operate through the methods provided by the special service terms.

Sensitive Personal Information You Share

Certain personal information may be considered sensitive due to its special nature, such as your race, religion, personal health, and medical information. Sensitive personal information is more strictly protected than other personal information. Please note that the content and information you provide, upload, or publish when using our services (such as photos about your social activities) may disclose your sensitive personal information. You need to carefully consider whether to disclose relevant sensitive personal information when using our services. By agreeing to this Privacy Policy, you agree to the processing of your sensitive personal information for the purposes and in the manner described in this Privacy Policy.

How We May Collect Information

We or our third-party partners may collect and use your information through Cookies and Web beacons and store such information as log information. We use our Cookies and Web beacons to provide a more personalized user experience and service for the following purposes:

- Remember your identity. For example, Cookies and Web beacons help us recognize your identity as our registered user, or save your preferences or other information you provide to us;
- Analyze your usage of our services. For example, we can use Cookies and Web beacons to understand what activities you perform using our services, or which webpages or services are most popular with you;
- Advertising optimization. Cookies and Web beacons help us provide you with relevant ads based on your information rather than general ads.

5. Advertising Services

We may use your relevant information to provide you with more relevant advertisements. We may also use your information to send you marketing messages through our services, email, or other means, promoting or offering you our or third-party products and services, such as:

Our products or services, our affiliated companies' and partners' products or services, including instant messaging services, online media services, interactive entertainment services, social network services, payment services, internet search services, location and map services, application software and services, data management and services, online advertising services, internet finance, and other social media, entertainment, e-commerce, information and communication software or services (collectively referred to as "Internet Services");

Third-party internet service providers, and third-party products or services related to the following: food and catering, sports, music, movies, television, live performances, and other arts and entertainment, books, magazines, and other publications, clothing and accessories, jewelry, cosmetics, personal health and hygiene, electronics, collectibles, household utensils, appliances, home decoration and furnishings, pets, automobiles, hotels, transportation and travel, banking, insurance, and other financial services, membership points, and rewards programs, and other products or services that we consider may be related to you.

Email and Push Notifications: When you use our services, we may use your information to send emails, news, or push notifications to your devices. If you do not wish to receive these messages, you can unsubscribe on your device according to our relevant prompts.

Service-Related Announcements: We may issue service-related announcements when necessary (for example, when a service is suspended due to system maintenance). You may not be able to cancel these service-related, non-promotional announcements.

Exceptions to the Privacy Policy: Our services may include or link to social media or other services (including websites) provided by third parties. For example: You use the "Share" button to share certain content to our services, or you use third-party connection services to log in to our services. These functions may collect your relevant information (including your log information) and may place Cookies on your computer to ensure the normal operation of the above functions;

We provide links to you through advertisements or other methods in our services that allow you to access third-party services or websites. These third-party social media or other services may be operated by relevant third parties or us. Your use of such third-party social media or other services (including any personal information you provide to such third parties) is governed by their service terms and privacy policies, not by the General Service Terms or this Privacy Policy. You need to carefully read their terms.

This Privacy Policy only applies to the information we collect and does not apply to any services provided by third parties or the use of information rules by third parties. We are not responsible for any third party's use of information you provide.

Use of Our Services by Minors

We encourage parents or guardians to guide minors under the age of eighteen to use our services. We recommend that minors encourage their parents or guardians to read this Privacy Policy and seek their consent and guidance before submitting personal information. At the same time, we also allow minors under the age of eighteen to use our services, but they must use our services under the guidance and supervision of parents and guardians. This Privacy Policy also has the same legal effect on minors under the age of eighteen.

6. Scope of the Privacy Policy

Except for certain specific services, all our services use this Privacy Policy. These specific services will apply specific privacy policies. The specific privacy policies for certain services will more specifically explain how we use your information in those services. The privacy policy of the specific service constitutes part of this Privacy Policy. If there is any inconsistency between the specific service's privacy policy and this Privacy Policy, the specific service's privacy policy shall prevail. Except as otherwise provided in this Privacy Policy, otherwise this policy supports.

7. Cross-Border Data Transfer

To reduce our costs in other countries or regions and to ensure the smooth progress of our work, your data may be transferred to other countries or regions. We may take measures such as encryption before transmitting your data.

8. Please Note

This Privacy Policy does not apply to the following situations:

Information collected through third-party services (including any third-party websites) accessed through our services;

Information collected by other companies or institutions that carry out advertising services in our services.

We may revise the terms of this Privacy Policy at any time, and such revisions will become part of this Privacy Policy.

This Privacy Policy is drafted and interpreted in Chinese. Unless otherwise agreed by both parties, any translation of this Privacy Policy shall not be used as a basis for interpreting this agreement or determining the intentions of the parties. If these revisions result in a substantial reduction of your rights under this Privacy Policy, we reserve the right to modify the Privacy Policy without notifying you or obtaining your consent. In this case, if you continue to use our services, it means that you agree to be bound by the revised and future revised Privacy Policy.
